MARCH NEWSLETTER

ESSAY CONTEST. This annual contest for our seventh and eighth grade students is one of our most important programs for vocations. The subject each year encourages these young people to think about what a Vocation really is. At their age it causes them to think about themselves. That is something they can carry through their high school years. Judy Doolittle is conducting this contest and she may call upon you to help in judging the winners. The winners and their parents will be at Charter Night.

COMING SOON as Lent comes to an end is Holy Thursday. On that day, all the Priests and Deacons of the Archdiocese attend the Mass of the Chrism at the Cathedral. It is a magnificent event and all Serrans are invited to attend. Seats are reserved for the Serrans and once you attend you won't want to miss it. The priests renew their vows to the Cardinal and to see this church filled with the priests and deacons is truly inspiring. Think about attending. You won't be sorry.

CHARTER NIGHT APRIL 26, will feature Bishop Cistone as our guest speaker. Bishop Cistone is Vicar General of our Archdiocese. As in the past, the dinner will be held at Hennessy's.

OUR NEXT MEETING will be this Saturday, March 7 at Our Lady of Charity. Our speaker will be Father William Kelly, O.Praem. Some of our members are familiar with the Norbertine Fathers from their days at Archmere Academy. Father is now at the Daylesford Abbey. Officers and Trustees will meet on Tuesday, March 17. (Wear Green)

PLEASE PRAY for the sister of our president, Margaret Flanagan. Her sister is near death and your prayers should include the family who have suffered a great deal for quite a long time. I would also appreciate prayers for my sister, Mary Grogan.
