

DELCHESTER SERRA CLUB

March 2013

Essay Contest Judging

Judy Doolittle reminds us that the readers for this year's essay contest will be meeting at the Grogans' home on March 15. At that time, the essays will be ranked based on the readers' assessments of the essays' merits.

Each year, the readers are impressed with the improving quality of the essays received. This is a tribute to both the students and to their teachers.

Good luck to all those who submitted essays and thanks to all the Delchester Serra Club members who make this program a success! We look forward to meeting the first and second place winners, their families, and teachers at our Charter Night dinner on May 5.

2013 Ad Book Update

Information about the ad book project, done annually in conjunction with the 59th Annual Charter Night of the Delchester Serra Club was distributed at the February 2 Club meeting. Packets of information were also taken by members who attended the February meeting to distribute to those who were not able to attend.

Since the cost for each ad stayed the same this year, the two main things to remember are:

1. all returns, including advertiser name on renewed ads, material to be copied for new ads, and payments should be turned in to Marty Frick;
2. make your returns as soon as you complete them, even if it means turning them in one by one. No returns will be accepted after April 6 due to the need for time to compose the ad book.

If you or advertisers have any questions about the ad book, ad layout, and so forth, please contact Marty Frick by email at mfrick@comcast.net or at 610-361-9397. Please leave a message if I am not available to answer the phone. Thanks for all your work on this program.
