November 2014

Delchester Serra Club Members Speak at St. Katherine Drexel Church

Kicking off the 2014 - 2015 program year for our Club's vocations programs, three parishioners from St. Katherine Drexel parish spoke briefly at Masses there on Sunday, October 12.

Rick and Susan Dennis spoke jointly at the 8:30 a.m. Mass while Gerry Farrell spoke at the 10:30 a.m. Mass. After these Masses, as well as after the 4:00 p.m. Vigil Mass, parishioners were provided information about both the Delchester Serra Club and its activities as well as about Serra USA Council.

We thank Father Scott Brockson, pastor, and the many parishioners, including fellow club member Frank Pileggi, who welcomed our speakers. We would be happy to see new faces from St. Katherine Drexel at future Delchester Serra Club meetings. Not only does Serra promote religious vocations and support those who have answered that call, it also encourages its members to "fulfill their own Christian vocations to service."

Club members are available to speak about vocations at Masses, in parish and regional Catholic schools, and at parish PREP classes. We have teamed with members of local women's religious communities for presentations to children's classes.

If you would like to request speakers, please contact us by email at vocations@delchesterserra.org.

Delchester Serrans Attend Seminary Gala

Saturday, October 4, was a busy day for some of our fellow Serrans. Of course, our regular monthly meeting followed Mass at Our Lady of Charity church. Then some of our members participated in the Aston Day festivities later that morning. The Club also had a display at the Our Lady of Charity Ministry Fair.

Check with them about the evening and keep it in mind for next year.

Continue to pray for religious vocations
