Essay Contest Update

We have had another successful essay contest campaign. This year we received 43 essays from 16 parishes, including essays from both PREP and school from one parish.

The next step in the contest will consist of the volunteer judges reading all of the essays and ranking them. The essays have all been assigned numbers and are not identified to the judges by either name or parish.

Then the judges will gather to compare rankings, discuss the top ranked essays, and determine the first and second place essays.

The essay winners and their teachers will be notified by the contest coordinators. We hope the winners, their families, and teachers will be able to attend our Charter Night program on May 3.

Congratulations to all those whose essays were chosen for submission and to the PREP and schools which, hopefully, used this essay topic as a teaching tool.

Register to Attend Charter Night

We have already mentioned that our annual Charter Night will be at the Lamb Banquet Facilities starting at about 5:00 p.m. on Sunday, May 3, and the cost will again be $35 per person.

We have a couple of updates:

- Our Charter Night speaker will be Father Michael Callaghan, C.M., of St. Vincent's Seminary in Philadelphia.
- The three entrée choices will be chicken parmigiana, prime rib of beef, or crab cakes. If you were not able to attend a Club meeting and select your entrée, please contact Margaret Flanagan at 610-499-1451 with your entrée choice. We need to provide The Lamb with our choices so we will all have the entrée we want.

We hope to enjoy the company of our Club members and guests at Charter night this year.
