

DELCHESTER SERRA CLUB

November 2015

Christmas Mass and Social

This is a “heads up” for what has become a traditional event combining worship, prayer for vocations, and camaraderie. The members of the Delchester Serra Club and their spouses will gather once again during the Christmas season to celebrate Mass and enjoy seasonal treats our members share with each other.

The date for the event is typically the third Tuesday in December, taking the place of the regular monthly officers and trustees meeting. This year, that would be on December 15.

The specifics of this year’s social and Mass will be discussed at the November 7 membership meeting. .

Come to Our Meeting

Would you recognize your fellow Delchester Serra Club members if you passed them on street?

Come out to our monthly meetings – renew old acquaintances. Hear the reports of our members’ activities and plans. Bring prospective members.

Speak with our guest speakers about religious life today and their perspectives on its future.

We would all enjoy the benefit of your experience with Delchester Serra and, hopefully, your suggestions for improving what we do. Each of us has a unique perspective on our work based on our life history. Let’s make the best use of it!

Hope to see you this month!

DID YOU KNOW?

When you reach the home page of our Club’s website, there is an option to click on “Favorite Links.” This takes you to a web page with links both to elements within the Philadelphia Archdiocese as well as to other organizations interested in promoting and supporting religious vocations. Try it out!
