Vocation Awareness Essay Contest

As mentioned last month, the 2020 Delchester Serra Vocation Awareness Essay Contest mailing went out with the instructions and theme:

“How could my family’s life foster and encourage a positive response to God’s call to a religious vocation?”

This contest is open to Delaware and Chester County Catholic school and PREP students in grades 6, 7, and 8. Only one essay may be submitted per class, including submissions from each class in a grade if the school or program has more than one class in a grade.

February 28 is the deadline for submitting the essays, after which they will be reviewed by a committee of Delchester Serra Club members. Essays are judged in a blind judging; only sequential numbers, not names, are on the essays read by the judges.

The first place winner receives a $200 bank card; second place receives a $100 bank card; teacher of the first place winner receives a $50 bank card. Winners will be notified in March and awards will be presented in May 2020.

More information, including prior winning essays, may be found at www.delchesterserra.org.
