Vocations Prayer

The following is available at the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops website, www.usccb.org

O Lord, help me know your will for me.

Let your light shine in the depths of my heart that I may know what you want me to do with my life.

Help me believe that you have a special plan for me.

Lord, I know I pass through this life only once; help me decide how you want me to make a difference.

Like our Blessed Mother, give me the wisdom to hear your voice and the courage to answer your call.

Above all give me peace of mind and heart.

I offer this prayer in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen.

Please keep our Delchester Serra Members and their families in your prayers, especially...

PADRE SERRA SAYS:

Most of us like mysteries, especially those we can solve using clues, facts and reason. One of the greatest mysteries of our lives is, "Who will I become?"

Our Christian teaching tells us that we receive a personal call from God to love and serve His people. But how? What are the clues?

What do other people and events tell us about whether or not our options include a vowed life as a brother or sister or ordination to the diaconate or priesthood?

Take a look at the "facts" outside you, the needs beyond the people and world you know. How can you help house those in need, to bring about peace and justice where there is prejudice and violence?

Where do you enter this scenario? What do you sense in your heart and head? Are you a leader or a follower? Do you work well with people? How are you with God?

With these clues and facts about today's world and yourself, how do you answer the question of who you will become? How do you decide how you will work out a life response to God?
