

How can we hear the whisper of God's call in our loud modern American culture?

We can hear the whisper of God's call in our loud modern American culture by setting aside quiet time to calm down, meditate and pray. We all need this quiet time to escape the chaos of life. We need to slow down so that God's call will not be drowned out.

One way we can hear God's call is by setting aside time for just thinking. We could find a quiet and peaceful place to sit and listen to nature with our ears and hearts open. If our hearts are open, we will hear Him more clearly.

Another way we can hear God's call is by listening more closely to others because God is in each one of us. We should not speak when another person is speaking. By being more patient and really listening to each other, we will see and hear God in each other.

When we are quiet, we feel more generous and loving which will lead us closer to God. Although we live in a loud and busy world, we can take time to meditate, pray, or sit calmly with open and peaceful minds. If we do this we will hear God's whisper loud and clear.
