Archdiocese of Philadelphia Reschedules Ordinations

This information is an Archdiocesan press release dated April 17, 2020:

The Archdiocese of Philadelphia today announced the rescheduling of several liturgical celebrations, previously scheduled for May 2020. The rescheduled celebrations include the ordination of priests, permanent deacons, transitional deacons and the institution of acolytes. The Ordination of Transitional Deacons, which was originally scheduled for May 9, 2020 will now be combined with the Ordination of Permanent Deacons and will take place on Saturday, June 13, 2020 at the Cathedral Basilica of Saints Peter and Paul. The ordination of priests will take place at the Cathedral Basilica on Saturday, June 20, 2020. The Mass with the Institution of Acolytes is postponed until September 12, 2020 in Saint Martin’s Chapel at Saint Charles Seminary.

Bishop Timothy C. Senior, Rector of Saint Charles Borromeo Seminary, said, “The rescheduled dates have been selected in the hope that, by the middle of June, the current COVID 19 health crisis pandemic will have subsided such that liturgical celebrations of this kind will be able to be held. However, these dates remain tentative subject to the directives of our civil and health authorities. We continue to pray fervently for all who are suffering from the Coronavirus, for their families and caregivers, for healthcare workers, first responders and all who are putting their lives at risk for the benefit of others.”

Please pray for the following Delchester Serra Club members who have died since our last newsletter and their families:

Nora M. Grogan
Robert T. “Bob” Magolon
May they rest in peace.

Please keep our Delchester Serra members and their families in your prayers, especially ...
