February 2022

Vocations Prayer

The following is available at the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops website, www.usccb.org

He said to them "Come and See." They came and saw where he was staying (John 1:39).

God of all nations, we are most grateful for the first Catholic missionaries and explorers who came to our country. As strangers in a strange land they brought with them countless skills, talents and traditions, but their greatest treasure was their faith.

May the good news of Jesus Christ, which molded and shaped their lives, continue to mold and shape our lives today.

Bless our archdiocese with men and women who will follow in their footsteps to serve the Church as religious brothers, sisters, priests, and deacons.

Lord Jesus Christ, help us to hear your call to "Come and See."

Amen.

SAINT JUNIPERO SERRA, the Franciscan priest who founded nine of California's missions, was a model of perseverance and strong faith. Despite a chronic foot infection, Serra walked more miles in his career than the expeditions of Lewis and Clark and Marco Polo combined, all to spread the Good News.

It was perhaps providential that the founders of Serra International, the organization of lay Catholics who promote vocations, chose Fr. Junipero Serra as their patron in 1935. Now, even more than then, the work of promoting vocations requires perseverance and strong faith.

Please continue to pray for an increase in vocations to priesthood, sisterhood, and brotherhood, and for all vocations to the consecrated life.
