March 2022

Serra Rally 2022 in Irving, Texas

What a wonderful event. Dynamic speakers with a message of hope for us, our church, and vocations. They shared information on new programs, ideas, and their own life experiences. US Council President Richard Arians started the Rally off with exciting news of a mentorship program for new clubs and existing clubs needing assistance.

There were sessions on Evangelization, the Consecrated Life, Clergy, Vocations, the Cultural Ambassador Initiative, and so much more. Time was allotted daily for Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament. At the end of the first day we were bused to St. Francis of Assisi Parish in Grapevine, TX. where Bishop Michael F. Olson celebrated Mass and gave a homily encouraging us to continue serving God as dedicated Serrans.

Before returning to the conference center we were treated to a delicious Texas barbeque and country entertainment in the Parish Hall. Bob and Ginny Buchest were delightful table mates. We shared lots of laughter and good conversation. Bob is the Regional Director in SW Denver. He will be sending me pictures he took during the two days I was able to attend.

Saturday began with a Holy Hour in the Adoration Chapel with Fr. Luke Ballman. He alternated prayer and silence. Beautiful.

I attended a vocation panel discussion where two Priests and a Sister related their vocation stories and more. You will be able to view all on YouTube. I hope you will enjoy the sessions you choose as much as I enjoyed the gift of the Rally.

Thank you and God Bless you.
