WHAT KINDS OF PEOPLE ...

...become priests, sisters or brothers?

Are they uncommonly holy, unusually saint-like? No. They are people who make mistakes, people who aren't afraid to be human while in God's service.

Are they people who can't face the competition and cruelty of the "real" world? No. They are people who believe that through ministry they can immerse themselves in the world and make positive changes.

Are they people who don't relate well with other people? No. They are people who love others — people who find real satisfaction chatting with a 93-year-old parishioner, holding the hand of a cancer patient, listening to the troubles of a streetwise teen.

They are people with the courage to touch lives, hearts and souls in a high-tech, unchurched world.

Are you that kind of person?

Serra for priestly and religious vocations

Letter from our Club President

Dear Fellow Serrans,

We begin our meetings full of hope for the future of our club and our churches. Our union with God and the bonds of friendship between members make our mission a joy. Praying together has great power.

Sunday, September 24, is Priesthood Sunday. We need to reach out to the good and faithful priests who have dedicated their lives to helping us on our journey to salvation. Those that administer the sacraments in our parishes, those on missions, spiritual advisors, teachers and those that comfort us when we lose a loved one. Reach out with a note, a phone call, or a handshake to show your appreciation.

May God bless them and also you,

Dolores
